Taking the High Road - again

FOR some of us it must have felt a little like déjà vu following Dylan on the road up and down the country – and, for a select few, into Europe as well. Touring the halls and festival sites of UK and Europe is the ideal pursuit, and with the relaxed security this time round, good taping, whether audio or video, was guaranteed for all.

Come along on July 31 to The Golden Hind and see the fruits of our endeavours during the tour. It will also be the place to hear about the latest crop of CDs and audio tapes. Oh yes, and don't forget to ask Keith just how many Dylan concerts he saw!

bobdylan.com

FOR those of you who do not yet know, there were two new Dylan CD singles released on June 29. CD1: Love Sick (live from The Grammy Awards); Cold Irons Bound (live from El Rey Theatre); Cocaine (live from RI Rey Theatre); Born In Time (live from Jones Beach). CD2: Love Sick (album version); Can't Wait (live from El Rey Theatre); Roving Gambler (live from El Rey Theatre); Blind Willie McTell (live from Jones Beach).

All the live tracks were previously available to hear on the official Bob Dylan website (bobdylan.com). It's good to see that Columbia are, at last, making them available to a wider audience. Let's hope it's a trend and that more CDs will follow. Other songs available to hear on the website are: Shelter From The Storm, Roseland, New York City 10/19/94; I'm Not Supposed To Care, The Pond, Anaheim, CA 5/23/98; Make You Feel My Love, Pauley Pavilion, UCLA: Los Angeles, CA 5/21/98; The Lonesome River, with bluegrass great Ralph Stanley from the new release Clinch Mountain Country; Tears of Rage, Theater at Madison Square Garden, NYC 1/17/98; Born In Time, New Jersey Center for the Performing Arts, Newark, NJ 2/1/98; The Man In Me, Landmark Theater, Syracuse, NY 1/28/98; Girl Of The North Country, Theater at Madison Square Garden, NYC 1/20/98; Tight Connection To My Heart (Has Anybody Seen My Love?), Weeping Willow, Delia, The Supper Club, New York City 11/17/93.

An album too...

A RECENT Email from the Bob Dylan website announced news of a forthcoming album:

"Later this year, Columbia Records will release the long-awaited next edition of The Bootleg Series. This two-CD set will be the complete "Royal Albert Hall" concert, actually performed in England at Manchester's Free Trade Hall on May 17, 1966, with the group of musicians called the Hawks who later became The Band. Never before officially released, this concert has been bootlegged extensively and has gathered a reputation as one of the greatest nights of music ever caught on tape. The Columbia release features an extended essay by musician and long-time Dylan friend Tony Glover and quite a few photographs, some of them previously unpublished."

HOW TO FIND THE GOLDEN HIND

The Golden Hind is very easy to find. It's an extremely large pub set back off the road at a key junction North of the City on Milton Road, just a short distance from The Portland Arms.

If you're coming from outside Cambridge, it's best to approach it from the A14. Leave at the A10/A1309 turn-off and head into the City. The Golden Hind is on the right at the fourth set of traffic lights. There is ample parking space at the rear, accessed via King's Hedges Road.

The Functions Room is on the first floor - and is certainly our best venue yet!
